THE ROYAL AIR FORCE BENEVOLENT FUND

The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund was founded in October, 1919, by Lord Trenchard, and its object is the relief of distress amongst past and present members of the Royal Air Force, Royal Auxiliary Air Force, Royal Air Force Reserve, Women's Royal Air Force, and their dependants.

The Fund Assists:

- (a) Those disabled while flying, and the dependants of those killed.
- (b) Other casualties and their dependants
- (c) Sufferers on account of sickness and general distress

The Fund exists for a service that trains as well as fights in the air, and provides relief for cases arising from casualties in war as well as from flying accidents and ordinary distress in peace. It must, therefore, be prepared to render help indefinitely, and not merely to meet temporary emergencies.

* Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and should be sent to:

'They need
than pity'

No amount of welfare legislation can ever completely solve the problem of children hurt by ill-treatment or neglect. There must be an independent, experienced organisation whose trained workers can protect those who cannot defend themselves—and who give the patient advice and assistance so often needed to rebuild the family life. The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children depends on voluntary contributions to continue this work. No surer way could be found of helping the helpless, and bringing happiness to those who need it most.

MANY times in the past The Salvation Army has been helped by legacies. Today, the sympathetic interest that prompts such generosity is still earnestly sought, not only for the Army's constant mission of moral regeneration, but also for its many-sided welfare work.

THE Ex-Services Welfare Society was founded in 1919 and exists for men and women of all Branches of H.M. Forces, including the Merchant Navy, suffering from War Psychoses and Neuroses.

The Organization supplements the work of the State and local Authorities, on behalf of 26,000 ex-Service men and women now in Mental Hospitals, and over 120,000 other sufferers. It undertakes their general welfare in all its aspects. It maintains its own Curative Homes, and in addition an Industrial Centre where recovered patients work under sheltered conditions.

The Society receives no State aid, and is the only one that deals exclusively with ex-Service men and women suffering from this form of war wound.

Over £60,000 is required yearly.

Please HELP these Children!

Since its foundation in 1827, several thousand orphans of Merchant Seamen have been cared for, educated, and set up in life; and there are now over 300 boys and girls at the school, more than half of whom lost their fathers during the late war.

The assured income does not meet the expenditure. New subscribers are urgently needed to bridge the gap.

Please show your appreciation of our Merchant Seamen by sending donations or subscriptions to the

The West London Mission

NOT ONE GOOD CAUSE
BUT MANY.....

The homeless, the destitute, the hungry —

Which shall we help ?

THE WEST LONDON MISSION HAS ONLY ONE ANSWER :

We must help them all

This Methodist Mission in Kingsway has now been ministering to the poor, the wronged and the defeated for over 60 years. Its Katherine Price Hughes Hostel for Girls has given safe shelter and a new way of life to thousands, and is a centre for Rescue Work. The Crèche, the Hungerford, the Church Community Centre, the Youth Clubs, the Home for Unmarried Mothers and their toddlers and the Home for Discharged Prisoners—these are some of its many enterprises.

To make a bequest to the West London Mission is to open up new hope, new happiness, a new and better way of life to many

Rev. Dr. DONALD O. SOPER, M.A., is Superintendent of the Mission and all gifts should be sent to him at the Headquarters

Kingsway Hall, Kingsway, London, W.C.2

LOCAL AUTHORITIES' POWERS OF PURCHASE

A Summary by A. S. WISDOM, Solicitor

"This is an excellent practical summary. The summary provides a ready guide to members and officers of local authorities and their Committees when confronted with the question whether land can be used for a particular purpose."

Law Times.

"Mr. Wisdom, in a small work of considerable value, has produced a summary of statutory powers which is concise without loss of accuracy and comprehensive without bulk . . . This is a useful and inexpensive minor work."

County Councils Association Official Gazette.

"The author is to be congratulated on an extremely practical piece of work. From it you can see the relevant sections of the relevant Act governing the purchase of anything from an ancient monument to judges' lodgings, from a cemetery to a civic restaurant, from an aerodrome to a slaughter-house."

The Journal of the Society of Town Clerks.

ADVICE ON ADVOCACY

IN THE MAGISTRATES' COURT (TO SOLICITORS)

By F. J. O. CODDINGTON, M.A., LL.D.

WITH A FOREWORD-ESSAY

By SIR NORMAN BIRKETT, P.C., LL.D.

"... Any young solicitor who aspires to the art of the advocate will do well to read the booklet, whilst many an older man might well benefit from its study, combined with a degree of self-analysis . . . Dr. Coddington's many years as an advocate, and his time as a stipendiary, qualify him to advise with authority, and he has encompassed a great deal in very few well-chosen words . . ."

The Law Journal.

"... though a lay magistrate may find difficulty in accepting the ethics of advocacy, it is to his advantage to know about them, and this knowledge and more he will gain from Dr. Coddington's book."

The Magistrate.

"... Sir Norman does more than merely commend Dr. Coddington's little book; he has made of his foreword a polished work of art that it is likely to be quoted again and again by any writer or speaker who wishes to set forth the character and attainments expected of an advocate in the English Courts. Dr. Coddington's own treatise is deliberately cast in a less formal pattern. It is wholly original, nothing having been taken from his previous writings, and is packed with sound guidance and apt anecdotes derived from his own or his friends' experience . . ."

Yorkshire Post.

"... Birkett, L.J., has supplied a foreword-essay which is a delight in itself, scholarly, wise and full of the considered experience of a great advocate."

The Law Times.

"... to police prosecutors the advice on preparations before entering court and the orderly presentation is of particular importance . . ."

The Police Review.

"... Dr. Coddington's light-hearted reminiscences are entirely 'unbookish'—exactly, one imagines, what he would say to those sitting opposite to him when the port was going round . . . It is preceded by what is described as a 'Foreword-Essay' by the Rt. Hon. Sir Norman Birkett, P.C., LL.D. And all this for three shillings and sixpence: the price of . . . !"
